Sixth Sunday
of Easter

Whoever loves me
will keep my word,
and my Father
will love them,
and we will come
to them and make our dwelling with them.

In formal documents, presentations, and homilies outlining the purpose of this Jubilee Year of Mercy, Pope Francis explains that compassion and understanding for those in difficult situations is not only our individual responsibility, but something the whole Church officially needs to manifest. Today's Acts of the Apostles reading presents a moving example of the early church doing precisely that. Prayerful openness to the Holy Spirit assures the assembly that they have not acted alone in discerning the correct resolution: "It is the decision of the Holy Spirit and of us." And they have chosen the compassionate response: "not to place on you any burden beyond these necessities" (Acts 15:28). Yet how daringly creative--the Jewish majority sets aside lifelong rituals that establish spiritual identity and express covenant fidelity. How radically trustful--the church affirms universally valid principles while respecting uniquely local and personal situations. Exactly the grace Pope Francis prays this Jubilee Year will renew in today's Church! --Peter Scagnelli, Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Adult: How does the merciful and compassionate Jesus dwell with you in your home? How do you show this compassion and mercy to your family?
 Youth: How do you experience Jesus and his Father being at home with you and your family?

NEXT SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading -- Jesus tells the disciples that they will be witnesses to the ends of the earth (Acts 1:1-11).
 Psalm -- God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord (Psalm 47).
 Second Reading -- God seated Jesus at his right hand in the heavens (Ephesians 1:17-23) or Hebrews 9:24-28; 10:19-23.
 Gospel -- As Jesus blessed his disciples he parted from them and was taken up to heaven (Luke 24:46-53).

DID YOU KNOW?

Stress can affect your child.

Everyone has stress, whether it's a bad day at work, car trouble, or simply too many things to do. It is important to learn how to manage your stress—for your own sake and for the children around you. Too much stress can make it hard to parent effectively. After a while, your children may show signs of being stressed out, too. For a fact sheet on managing stress please email: jvienna@la-archdiocese.org or call (213) 637-7227.

Olive Wood Crosses to Benefit Christians in the Middle East

Knights of Columbus in partnership with the Holy Land Christian Ecumenical Foundation are selling olive wood crosses beginning May 22, 2016 for $10.00. These 5" crosses are made by Christians in the Holy Land.

One hundred percent of the proceeds from the sale of these crosses will go to support persecuted Christians in the Middle East.

Please contact Knights of Columbus Officer David Cope at crowcope@aol.com or (805) 498-410

For those who would like their child's name read before the Offertory, please register by calling Imelda Tjia at 805-553-9034 or email missingyouall@att.net.

Please bring a SINGLE long stem flower to be presented to the front of the altar when your child's name is called.

Reception will follow after Mass at the Parish Office dining room.

A GARDENER'S CREED

One is nearer God's heart in a garden than anywhere else on earth.

--Anonymous

Monday, May 9 ~ 7:00-9:00pm

A slowed-down version of our Catholic Mass can give people the opportunity to understand and reflect more deeply on the meaning and significance of the prayers, gestures and scripture readings that form the basis of this most sacred liturgical rite. Fr. Jim Clarke, Director of Spiritual Formation at St. John's Seminary, will celebrate a "Mass in Slow-Motion" at Padre Serra Parish. He will present an overview of ways in which the Mass has developed over the centuries, as well as demonstrating a more mindful approach that can lead to more active and full participation in the worship experience. 5205 Upland Road, Camarillo.

RSVP: anne@padreserra.org

THE GIFT OF PEACE

We are offered another vision in today's second reading, a vision of the New Jerusalem, "coming down out of heaven from God" (Revelation 21:10). Read between the lines describing the radiant city, and we find that the greatest beauty revealed is the beauty of perfect symmetry and order, a city founded on the faith of the twelve tribes of Israel and the Twelve Apostles, lit only by the glory of God.

The first reading and the Gospel are linked to this idealized description of the New Jerusalem. In both we read of distress and disturbance countered by the gift of peace. "[M]y peace I give to you," Jesus assures his disciples at the Last Supper (John 14:27). In keeping with that gift, the apostles and elders, in the reading from Acts, decide not to disturb the peace of new Gentile believers. The undue burden of circumcision will not be imposed on them.

Mental Wellness, Spirituality, and the Family Wednesday, May 11 7:00pm, Padre Serra Parish

What is mental health and mental wellness? What part does one's spirituality play in helping to meet the challenges connected with mental health? How can family and friends best offer support to a loved one who is experiencing mental health difficulties? David Deutsch, LCSW, is the executive director of the Ventura County National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI). Join him for an informative and inspiring session for those directly or indirectly impacted by mental health issues. Representatives from NAMI will offer resource, classes and support group information as well. No cost. 6:30pm doors open. 5205 Upland Road, Camarillo. RSVP anne@padreserra.org.
