Last Sunday’s “Good Samaritan” parable concluded with Jesus’ command: Go provide hands-on mercy to the next person you meet, no conditions, no limits, no exceptions. But today, Jesus seems to criticize Martha’s hands-on mercy of hospitality, while praising Mary’s “hands-off” as “choosing the better part” (Luke 10:42). Mary sat listening (10:39), leaving Martha “burdened with much serving by herself” (10:40). So, is the contemplative life of prayerful silence “superior,” but the active life of earning a living, raising a family, running parishes, schools, hospitals, and social service ministries “second-class” discipleship? No; Jesus’ example is not either/or but both/and: silent communion with God, boundless compassion for people. If we do not seek Jesus in silent prayer, how will we find Jesus in all others? If we do not serve Jesus in others, will our worship, despite its beauty, be anything but empty ritual? This Jubilee Year of Mercy offers us Jesus’ two-fold challenge: both “go and do” and “sit and listen.”

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Adult: Which response to God’s call is more natural to you—prayer or action? Why?

Youth: In the past week, when have you prayed and when have you done good things for others? Which could you do better?

NEXT SUNDAY’S READINGS

First Reading -- Abraham bargains with God to spare the city (Genesis 18:20-32).

Psalm -- Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me (Psalm 138).

Second Reading -- Buried with Christ in baptism, we were also raised with him; all our transgressions are forgiven (Colossians 2:12-14).

Gospel -- Jesus speaks of God’s sure response to those who pray (Luke 11:1-13).

PRAYER FOR PEACE

O God, Creator of the universe, who extends your paternal concern over every creature and guides the events of history to the goal of salvation, we acknowledge your fatherly love when you break the resistance of mankind and, in a world torn by strife and discord, you make us ready for reconciliation. Renew for us the wonders of your mercy; send forth your Spirit that he may work in the intimacy of hearts, that enemies may begin to dialogue, that adversaries may shake hands and peoples may encounter one another in harmony. May all commit themselves to the sincere search for true peace which will extinguish all arguments, for charity which overcomes hatred, for pardon which disarms revenge.

~Pope John Paul II

“Protecting Human Life is the Cornerstone of Catholic social Teaching.”

“The abortion conflict has never simply been about repealing Roe v. Wade. And the many pro-lifers I know live a much deeper kind of discipleship than “single issue” politics. But they do understand that the cornerstone of Catholic social teaching is protecting human life from conception to natural death. They do understand that every other human right depends on the right to life. They did not and do not and will not give up – and they won’t be lied to.”

Archbishop Charles J. Chaput O.F.M

DID YOU KNOW?

Constant vigilance goes a long way to protect your children from predators.

So much of our society operates on blind trust, and that trust can sometimes lead parents to make the wrong choices when it comes to the safety of their children. Far too many predators and abusers hide behind the well-known and trusted adults. Parents should be vigilant when introducing anyone into their children’s lives, and should not ignore any red flags or suspicious behavior. It’s better to investigate than to misplace your trust at the expense of your child’s safety. For a copy of the VIRTUS® article “An Ounce of Healthy Suspicion is Worth a Pound of Prevention,” email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org or call (213) 637-7227.
