Jubilee of Marian Devotion begins next Saturday

“How long, O LORD?” (Habakkuk 1:2). With Habakkuk’s question echoing across twenty-six hundred years, Respect Life Sunday finds all life claiming sanctuary in our hearts: unborn infant, senior citizen, immigrant and refugee, imprisoned and addicted, people burdened with illness and disabilities of body, mind, or spirit. Even Mother Earth, Pope Francis notes in Laudato Si’, bears scars of disrespect for the life she nurtures and sustains. Life is still threatened, as in Habakkuk’s day, with ruin and misery, “destruction and violence, . . . strife and clamorous discord” (see 1:3). Since our efforts so often seem ineffective, we “unprofitable servants” cry with the apostles, “Increase our faith” (Luke 17:10, 5). But Jesus’ reply might be paraphrased, “Not quantity--quality.” Next weekend marks the Jubilee Year of Mercy’s special devotion to Mary, whose willingness to shelter Jesus in her womb and stand at the foot of his cross bears witness to the qualities that Jesus expects our faith

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Adult: When have you done more than was required of you?

Youth: How do you feel after doing something extra for a family member or a friend?

NEXT SUNDAY’S READINGS

First Reading -- Naaman, cleansed from his leprosy, returns to Elisha and pledges his belief in and allegiance to the LORD (2 Kings 5:14-17).

Psalm -- The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power (Psalm 98).

Second Reading -- Remember Jesus Christ, who was raised from the dead. If we persevere, we shall reign with him (2 Timothy 2:8-13).

“Stand and be a witness for life and for end to abortion”

A great prayer for life is urgently needed, a prayer which will rise up throughout the world. Through special initiatives and in daily prayer, may an impassioned plea rise to God, the Creator and lover of life, from every Christian community, from every group and association, from every family and from the heart of every believer. -

MINISTRY

There are times when every one of us experiences difficulties—

- loss of a loved one
- job loss
- imprisonment
- hospitalization
- disability
- infertility
- spiritual crisis
- loneliness
- discouragement
- divorce
- cancer
- many other challenges

God never intended for us to go through these experiences alone. That's why God has brought us together as a congregation—and why we have Stephen Ministry.

Stephen Ministers are members of our congregation who have received 50 hours of training to minister to people experiencing a crisis or going through a difficult time in life.

Every week, a Stephen Minister will meet with you—privately and confidentially—to listen, care, encourage, support, and reflect Christ's presence in your life.

If you'd like to learn more about Stephen Ministry for yourself or someone else (inside or outside our congregation), contact a pastor or Stephen Leader.

Chaminade Family Spirit Night

Chaminade Family Spirit Night is being held on Friday, October 7th, for middle school students and their families. This is a special evening of fun, food, fellowship, and football beginning at 5:15pm with pre-game performances of our Eagle Regiment Band and cheerleaders and a light supper. Families will be treated to a preview of the football game and a presentation on our Athletic programs. Our Ambassadors will give families a tour of the campus, and will escort them to reserved seats in our stadium to be our guests for the football game against Loyola. Please RSVP to the Admissions Office at (818) 347-8300 ext. 355 or via email to yuramoto@chaminade.org.

DID YOU KNOW?

Know the signs of sex trafficking.

Young sex trafficking victims could be hiding in plain sight, in youth groups, schools, and sports teams. Adults should be aware of signs that could indicate abuse: a teen has suspicious injuries that can't be explained, or is afraid to be away from an older adult "friend" for extended periods of time. In these cases, taking the time to ask questions can make a huge difference in allowing a potential victim to open up or seek help. For a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Steps to Preventing Teen Sex
